Land Acknowledgement

As De Anza College employees we recognize De Anza College is located on unceded Ohlone indigenous territory. Classified Senate members invite the campus community to recognize this area as the original homeland of the Muwekma Ohlone Tribe of the San Francisco Tribe. Muwekma meaning “the people” and they have been stewarding these areas from San Francisco to the South Bay to Alameda County for 12,000 years through cultural keeping and ceremonial keeping and land stewarding. Geographically, we recognize De Anza College sits on the crux of Raymatush to the peninsula and Thamien tribal lands.

Due to intermarriage between Puichon/San Jose and Cupertino Thámien, it continued a diversify local indigenous peoples, in this territory of the ancestral unceded tribal lands of the Muwekma Ohlone people who were missionized in Missions Santa Clara, San Francisco and San Jose. The Muwekma Ohlone are the legal successors of the sovereign, federally recognized, Verona Band of Alameda County. This land was and continues to be of great importance to their Tribe and other familial Indian descendants of the Verona Band.

We understand we do this work with the contradiction that we are in occupied unceded territory after the massacre and genocide of indigenous peoples, with western definitions of political borders. The Muwekma and other first nations peoples have survived a history of land stealing, violence, cultural erasure, lies, exclusion, boarding schools, and displacement making them homeless in their homeland. Our solidarity begins with acknowledging the truth, learning more and continues with our actions. We are in gratitude towards the original stewards of this Ohlone land and strive to be respectful to the land, currently known as Silicon Valley.

We ask for grace to do this shared governance work so that it benefits and heals seven generations forward in this campus community we are building here at De Anza College and the communities we belong to in our everyday life. We hope to bring alive this intention beyond symbolic words, developing genuine relationships with our local indigenous communities, our colleagues and our students without adding more labor to them. Instead, we strive to uplift their history, heritage and sovereign rights.

Thus, we are committed to decolonize and deconstruct harmful narratives, in our work and in our shared governance, and walk without harming ourselves or our campus community, staying true to a way of life that involves "To All My Relations."

We are also committed to learn cultural humility, giving life to social justice inside and outside the classroom, centering first nation peoples, through relationship building and aligning Muwekma’s vision to “make things right for [their] people and dance for [their] children” with De Anza College's core values

- The Muwekma tribe is currently calling for action and requests that you
- Sign the “Restore Muwekma” Letter
- Sign the “Restore the Homeland” Letter - regain federally recognized tribal status
- Call your Representative
- Donate Funds

We also invite you to take time to learn about surrounding first nation peoples, the Amah Mutsun, the Raymatush, The Esselen, and The Tamien.

Preamble-Opening

We, the Classified Professionals of the De Anza College, who are part of Foothill-De Anza Community College District, hereby establish the De Anza College Classified Senate.

Our mission is to support De Anza College's institutional core values, vision, and goals by including Classified voices to inform the work of the campus. We bring the collective and diverse knowledge of Classified Professionals to inform campus and district vision, develop leadership, build committees, create policy and procedures, and enrich campus community relations. We continue to broaden that knowledge through shared governance, teamwork, and professional development. As our campus and district evolves, this can then facilitate the growth of our membership, improve our campus, and district, and eventually achieve better outcomes for our students.

Section X.4. Tax Implications

- (a) The Senate shall ensure that all financial activities comply with applicable tax laws and regulations. The Treasurer shall maintain records of all contributions and expenditures and shall file any necessary tax forms on behalf of the Senate.

Definitions

1. Advisory Vote: Within the context of the De Anza College Classified Senate, an advisory vote is a type of vote taken by the Senate that is non-binding and does not have the force of law or regulation. It is meant to serve as a recommendation or guidance on a particular matter, rather than a final decision. An advisory vote may be used to provide input or feedback on a proposed policy or decision, without having the authority to make a final decision or take action. The results of an advisory vote may be considered by decision-makers when making a final decision, but they are not required to follow the recommendation of the advisory vote.
2. Area of Focus: An area of focus refers to a particular topic or issue that the Classified Senate has identified as a priority for attention and action. It serves as a guiding framework for the Senate's work and initiatives, helping to ensure that resources and efforts are directed towards key areas of concern. The areas of focus may be identified by the Senate based on input from its members, the administration, or other stakeholders, and may be periodically reviewed and updated as needed to reflect changing needs and priorities.
3. Classified Senate: In the context of De Anza College, the term 'Classified Senate' refers to the official governing body comprised of classified professionals and employees who are employed by the Foothill-De Anza Community College District. The Classified Senate is responsible for representing the interests of classified staff members and providing a formal representative and professional voice in determining institutional positions, policies, procedures, and regulations at decision making spaces. The Senate's responsibilities include 1) promoting communication and mutual understanding among staff, faculty, administration, Board of Trustees, students, and other interested parties, 2) fostering professional development, and 3) providing the President and Chancellor with recommendations and views on matters affecting the conduct, welfare, and growth of the College.
4. Executive Board: Executive Board refers to the elected officers of the Classified Senate who are responsible for the day-to-day operation and management of the Senate, including but not limited to the President, Vice President, Secretary, Treasurer, and Communications Officer. They are responsible for implementing the decisions and policies of the Senate, setting the agenda for Senate meetings, and serving as liaisons between the Senate and other campus groups and individuals.
5. Classified Employees and Professionals refers to employees who work in positions that are not considered faculty or management positions, and who are covered by the collective bargaining agreement between the district and the classified bargaining unit. This term can be used interchangeably depending on the context.
6. Consensus Method: In the context of the Classified Senate, the consensus method is used to promote collaboration and inclusivity among members, and to ensure that decisions are made in the best interest of the entire classified staff. It is a valuable tool for building trust and fostering a positive work environment.
7. Parliamentarian Quorum: Parliamentarian - refers to an expert in parliamentary rules and procedures who advises the presiding officer and members of the Classified Senate on the proper conduct of meetings and adherence to the bylaws. The parliamentarian does not have voting rights in the Senate meetings.
8. Simple Majority: refers to the minimum number of votes required for a decision to be made by a group or organization. It is determined by calculating more than half of the total number of votes cast. In the context of the Classified Senate, a simple majority vote means that a decision or action will be taken if more than half of the voting members are in favor of it. For example, if there are 20 voting members, a simple majority would be 11 or more votes in favor of the decision or action.

9. "To All My Relations" is a phrase commonly used in indigenous cultures as a way to acknowledge the interconnectedness of all living things and to express respect and gratitude for the natural world. In the context of the Classified Senate, the phrase may be used as a reminder of the importance of working collaboratively and respectfully with all members of the college community, including staff, faculty, students, and administration, to achieve common goals and promote the well-being of the college and its surrounding community.
