DOCUMENTARY

"MANILATOWN MANANG"

You are invited to a special community preview screening of Manilatown Manang, a documentary honoring I-Hotel Tenant Defender Jeanette Gandionco Lazam. In the 1970s, Jeanette was among the young leaders who moved into the I-Hotel to help organize its defense, ultimately standing by elder Wahat Tampao during the historic 1977 eviction. Decades later, on June 3, 2021, she became the last evicted tenant to reclaim residency at the new International Hotel Senior Residences.

SPECIAL EXHIBIT

"IMAGINE KEARNY STREET"

SPECIAL EXHIBIT OPENS
OCTOBER 14 TO NOVEMBER 24
AT THE CALIFORNIA HISTORY CENTER

Through materials drawn from the Manilatown Heritage Foundation's Archives located at the International Hotel Manilatown Center (868 Kearny Street, San Francisco), "Imagine Kearny Street", offers a window into the Filipino community that once existed on 10-blocks of Kearny Street in San Francisco- its manongs and migrants, restaurants and pool halls, barber shops and nightclubs, artists and activists. The materials featured include historical photographs and commemorative publications.
