Re: ICS 14/ELIT 6/F-TV 48 course and cross-list status

As of today, October 13, 2016, ICS 14/ELIT 6/F-TV 48 cross-listed courses have not come to a complete agreement or resolution to continue their three-way cross-listing status. The Curriculum Office will be deleting these courses from the 2017-18 course catalog offerings. If, in the near future, the affected departments/divisions wish to revisit a possible cross-listing of these courses, they will need to resubmit them under the Curriculum Office's new course procedures and also go through the review and approval process of the college's Cross-listing Task Force and Curriculum Committee.

Regards,

Mary K. Clark-Tillman

a. Memo

DATE: December 5th, 2016

TO: Curriculum Committee

FROM: Speech Communication Department
Shagun Kaur, Chair

RE: Proposal to rename COMM 77W-Z and COMM 78W-Z.

Request: Proposal to rename COMM 77W-Z from Special Individual Projects in Speech Communication to Special Individual Projects in Communication Studies and rename COMM 78W-Z from Special Topics in Speech Communication to Special Topics in Communication Studies.

Justification:

1. Over the last decade, the discipline has moved from being oratory centered to include courses in political, health and gender communication among others. We have therefore changed the title of our program from "Speech Communication" to "Communication Studies". All courses in the department will effective AY 16-17 carry have the suffix COMM instead of SPCH. We would like COMM 77W-Z and COMM 78W-Z to mirror the rest of our courses for continuity.
2. COMM 77W-Z and COMM 78W-Z are mostly taken by our majors. Most regional and national institutions at the behest of National Associations in our field and Communication Transfer Model Curriculum taskforce have renamed their courses to Communication Studies. This change will therefore make it easier for our majors and transfer students to transfer; receive credits for their work; and effectively articulate their skills in today's job market.
3. The proposed name change was unanimously approved by our department faculty.

Timing, Budget and Staff Implications:

1. The name change has no staffing implications.
2. In fall 2017 our department changes its name from "Speech Communication" to "Communication Studies". We also change the suffixes for all our courses from SPCH to COMM. These changes will require changes in the De Anza schedule and catalog. It would be beneficial, in terms of budget, to make the name change for COMM 77W-Z and COMM 78W-Z at the same time.
